

Cathy Jefferson (Dayton)
Director of Tournament
Operations

Cathy has been on the Board of Directors since 1996. She is a member and twenty-time champion of Walnut Grove Country Club in Dayton. Her other championships include eleven Dayton City Women's Amateur titles, and the 2002 WOSGA Senior Amateur Championship. As one of the founding members of the Dayton District Women's Golf Association, Cathy has served as its treasurer, secretary, and two-term President of the organization. She has competed in multiple USGA events including the U.S. Amateur, Senior Amateur, and the State Team Championship.

A former coach of the Centerville High School Girls' Golf team, Cathy served as President of the Southwestern Ohio High School Girls' Golf Coaches Association and with the other girls' coaches from around the state, helped to implement an OHSAA tournament for the girl's teams.

An inductee into the Wright State University Athletic Hall of Fame and the Dayton Amateur Golf Hall of Fame, she was presented with the prestigious Betty Kerby Peppard Award in 2015.

Cathy has retired from education and is President of JeffCom, a computer consulting firm. In 2020, Cathy began her quest for LPGA teacher certification. Aside from golf, she enjoys traveling, reading, and music.
