

Women's Ohio State Golf Association

Policy No: 2017-03, CODE OF CONDUCT

Purpose: To establish a standard by which players must conduct themselves

All players are expected to hold themselves to a high standard of conduct on the golf course. Unbecoming conduct may include, but is not limited to, damage to the golf course or the player's equipment, verbal or physical abuse of spectators, fellow competitors, officials, volunteers, or staff, blatant or excessive profanity, disorderly behavior, failure to abide by club rules including club dress code, or any other unbecoming conduct. The player is held responsible for the conduct of their caddy.

The Women's Ohio State Golf Association may reject, at their discretion, an entry application, revoke an accepted application, expel from the championship or suspend a player from future championships for any reason including improper withdrawal from the championship or unbecoming conduct.
